

IBM PRESENTS
DEPAUW WITH $5,000 CHECK

PRESENTATION IS MADE BY MANAGER OF GREEN-
CASTLE PLANT

DePauw University yesterday received a gift of $5000 from the International Business Machines Corporation through the efforts of the recently-organized Committee of Greencastle Businessmen for DePauw.

With receipt of IBM's grant, the local businessmen's group exceeded its 1957 goal of $14,500 by more than $1000. A total of $15,541 has been secured to date.

In an informal ceremony here yesterday, the $5000 check was presented to university and committee officials by E. L. McCall, manager of the IBM plant in Greencastle.

Accepting the gift were Chester A. Coan, committee chairman; J. B. Crosby, a member of the committee's planning group; and Deward W. Smythe, DePauw controller.

Composed of more than 50 representatives of local business and industrial firms, the committee has obtained 86 gifts, averaging approximately $180 per gift.

Commenting on the IBM award, McCall said: "The International Business Machines Corporation feels that DePauw University is a great asset to the community and to the nation."

"We are more than happy to contribute to DePauw the support which it deserves," he continued, "and consider it both our privilege and pleasure to stand alongside other Greencastle business enterprises in this most worthwhile undertaking."

Members of the planning body for the businessmen's committee, in addition to Coan and Crosby, are C. H. Barnaby, Cloyd Moss, Fred O'Hair, Edgar Prevo, and William Unsworth.

20 Years Ago
HERE AND THERE

Putnam Lodge No. 45, I.O.O.F., celebrated its ninetieth anniversary with a love feast in the lodge hall.

John G. Friend was honored for being a member for 40 or more years. Nelson Brothers' string band furnished the music for the occasion.

A truck owned by Horace Link & Co., and driven by Gilbert Chisenberry, was damaged when a stone truck hit the rear end on North Jackson street.

FULTON'S SISTER—The Indianapolis Journal says that the poor house of Monroe County in this state, had for one of its inmates a number of years, a sister of Robert Fulton, the originator of the steamboat.

She was living several years ago, but we cannot say whether or not she is alive at present. It thus frequently happens that the greatest benefactors of the human race, with their immediate friends, have suffered for the want of pecuniary means. Fulton, himself, we believe, died a poor man. His sister in Monroe County was some years his senior." (1859)

CAMP MEETING—"A camp meeting of the Methodist E. Church will commence at the Bainbridge camp ground on Friday the 9th of September, ensuing. A good boarding tent will be kept on the ground, where all can be accommodated at fair and reasonable rates. The law in regard to huckster wagons will be strictly enforced. It is therefore hoped that none will attempt to violate it." (1859)

NEW COUNTY—"The Crawfordsville Journal of last week in speaking of the action of the commissioners of Montgomery County on the new county question says: 'The new county enterprise which has been before the commissioners of Montgomery, Parke and Putnam Counties for the past few months for the formation of the county of 'Bourbon' has, for the present, been disposed of. The commissioners of this county decided on Tuesday of this week no new county was needed or necessary.'" (1859)

EARLY BIRD—"Those merchants who don't open their stores or shops until 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning lose many a sale that they otherwise would make. 'The early bird catches the worm.'" (1859)

THANKSGIVING DAY—"Not much attention was paid to Thanksgiving Day at this place. Services we believe were held in most of the churches in town, but were slimly attended. None of the business houses were closed on that day." (1859)

CHURCH FOUNDER—"Elder Alexander Campbell, generally regarded as the founder of the religious denomination known as Christian has made a series of appointments for preaching in this state during the month of December, January and February. For the information of our readers in this section, we extract the following from the list: Ladoga, Jan. 1st, Bainbridge, Jan. 2nd, and Greencastle, Jan. 3rd." (1859)

LINCOLN VS. BUCHANAN—"Mr. Lincoln received more votes than Mr. Buchanan did. The following are the figures: Lincoln—1,864,960 Buchanan—1,839,642 Lincoln over Buchanan—25,318

It is said that Mr. Buchanan is making a most pitiable exhibition of himself, blubbering and chattering around the White House in a condition of imbecility. It is reported that he cries, and says that he dare not reinforce Major Anderson for he would be assassinated if he did." (1859)

BAINBRIDGE PERIODICAL—"We learn that an enterprise is on foot having for its object the starting of a literary monthly periodical at Bainbridge. Our Bainbridge friends generally accomplish what they undertake. We have not learned who is at the head of the project. Success to it, however." (1860).

Demos Come Up
With Tax Plan

WASHINGTON (UP)—House Democrats sprung a surprise plan today aimed at clearing the way for early tax relief.

They proposed to clamp a limit of 68 or 69 million dollars on government spending the current fiscal year.

They devised their plan to counter a directive President Eisenhower issued secretly to government agencies several weeks ago to hold spending to almost two billion dollars less than he originally budgeted for fiscal 1958. This would bring government outlays down to about 70 billion dollars.

Democrats, who learned of the order Friday, angrily concluded the President was trying to steal the economy issue from them after insisting the budget couldn't be cut appreciably.

The spending ceiling proposal picked up widespread support from Democratic leaders and the rank-and-file. Some Republicans even endorsed it and an early drive to enact such legislation seemed likely.

Chairman Clarence Cannon D-Mo. said his House Appropriations Committee soon would consider legislation to set a spending ceiling.

Such a spending limit would clear the road for Democrats to push for a tax cut. And if the President vetoed the legislation, Democrats still figured this would restore the economy issue to their side.

Governor Asks
U. S. Flood Aid

Flood-stricken Hoosier farmers kept an eye on Washington today in hopes 66 Indiana counties would be declared a disaster area.

Governor Handley sent a telegram to Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson Friday asking the declaration for all except 22 counties in a strip across the extreme north part of the state, and four counties in a block on the east central edge.

The telegram was sent after a disaster committee told Handley an estimated 1,334,666 acres of crops either were destroyed by heavy rains and floods or were made useless by excessive water which prevented planting.

A disaster declaration would mean Hoosier farmers could get federal loans at 3 per cent, but only if they were unable to get loans locally through other sources.

"Ordinarily, these loans are scheduled for repayments in one to five years," according to a Department of Agriculture pamphlet. "However, loans for repair or improvement of real estate may be scheduled over longer periods, usually not to exceed 10 years."

Such loans can be made for the purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, replacement equipment and livestock; for other essential farm and home operating expenses; and for the replacement or repair of buildings, fences, drainage and irrigation systems on individual farms that were damaged or destroyed by the disaster," the department said.

STASSEN SEEKS SECRET TALKS
WITH ZORIN

HOPES TO BREAK DEADLOCK ON A-TEST SUSPENSION

LONDON UP—U. S. delegate Harold E. Stassen today was reported seeking new secret talks with Russia's Valerian Zorin in an effort to break the deadlock on nuclear test suspension.

Authoritative sources said Stassen hoped to meet with Zorin sometime during the week-end recess in the five-power United Nations disarmament subcommittee conference.

It was assumed that the other Western delegates have given their "blessings" to the off-stage talks. Stassen drew heavy criticism after earlier similar talks for disclosing more details of the new United States disarmament proposals to the Russians than he did to the Allies.

Despite the harsh tone of Zorin's speeches at last week's conference sessions, American officials here believed the subcommittee was moving at last toward some sort of "first step" disarmament agreement.

EXPLORER SCOUTS FROM
BAINBRIDGE ARE AT CAMP

Thirteen boys from the Bainbridge Explorer post and Boy Scout Troop spent the first week in July at Camp Kristenstein, with George Green as their leader.

The boys all worked hard on their advancement and five scouts passed from the candidate stage to Second Class Scout Rank. During the Wednesday night ceremonies, two of the boys, Bill Harshbarger and John Collett, and Mr. George Green were called out for the Order of the Arrow, an honorary camping award.

On Friday night most of the boys received Merit badges or advancement in Rank which they earned during the week.

Oldest Senator
Suffers Attack

WASHINGTON UP—Eighty-nine-year-old Sen. Theodore F. Green, oldest man ever to serve in the Senate, was in satisfactory condition today following his collapse at a diplomatic party.

The elderly Rhode Island Democrat fell victim to "heat exhaustion" Friday night at a reception at the Pakistani Embassy. An aide said he probably will spend several days in nearby Bethesda Md. Naval Hospital where he is being treated.

A hospital spokesman described Green's condition as "satisfactory." Dr. George W. Calver, the Capitol physician, did not attend Green Friday night but said he would examine him early today.

Russ Back Pedal
At Arms Talks

LONDON (UP)—Russia accused the United States of presenting it with an "ultimatum" on control of nuclear tests which "no self-respecting nation can accept."

Chief Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin shook the five-power disarmament talks here with a bitter charge that the American demand for a 10-month suspension of tests, instead of Russia's two-to-three-year demand, amounted to a take-it-or-leave-it ultimatum.

He said he got the impression that the Soviet Union either had to take the 10-month offer or have no disarmament agreement at all.

Chief American delegate Harold E. Stassen and other Westerners immediately denied the accusation.

Stassen told the conference after Zorin's lengthy attack that the whole record of the 4-month-old talks disproved him.

He said the United States had made a "great move forward" in offering even the 10-month suspension. In the past, the West has rejected any halt in nuclear testing.

Zorin's new assault on American disarmament policy gave another sign that the Soviet line had hardened drastically since last Wednesday's shakeup of the Communist Party Presidium.

Stassen announced at the session, the 135th in three years of negotiations under United Nations sponsorship, that he had completed presentation of the new American nuclear control proposals.

Women Seeking
Fair Building

Petitions are being circulated by the various club women of the county which will ask for a levy of five cents on each $100 assessable property for maintenance and building a women's building at the fair grounds.

The building is supposed to cost about $40,000 and will not only house the exhibits of the 4-H Fair and Home Demonstration Clubs, but will have fair offices, an auditorium, which will be heated for all year meetings and for other purposes.

The present buildings have been constructed out of proceeds from a five cent levy during the past four years. They have cost about $100,000.

TEAMSTER, HEAD,
SON INDICTED
IN CAR SALES

CHARGED WITH SELLING 3 UNION-OWNED CADILLACS

SEATTLE UP—Indicted Teamster President Dave Beck expressed confidence today that witnesses would testify he and his son, Dave Jr., did not misappropriate union funds in the sale of three Cadillac.

A King County grand jury Friday returned indictments against the two Becks, charging Beck Sr., on one count of pocketing $1,900 in the sale of a union-owned Cadillac and Dave Jr., with keeping $4,650 realized from the sale of two more Cadillacs.

Beck said there was no question that the money from the sale of all three cars had gone to the Western Conference of Teamsters. He said the money had been transferred to the union "in cash."

He said he "rather doubted" whether conference records would show receipts of the amounts for each car "but you can be sure it will be proved that the money—every penny of it—was received and there will be witnesses who will so testify."

Beck Sr., was charged with selling a 1952 Cadillac belonging to the Western Conference of Teamsters and putting the $1,900 from the sale in the account of a private firm he heads. The car was bought by Martin Duffy, a specialties distributor and Teamster Union member.

The grand jury, which has been investigating Teamsters Union financial affairs in the Seattle area following recent racket committee hearings on Teamster Union activities, indicted Dave Beck Jr., on two similar counts.

The younger Beck was accused of having in his possession on Oct. 8, 1954, the $1,850 obtained from the sale of a 1951 Cadillac that was owned by the Joint Council of Teamsters, No. 28, to John L. Stratton, a hotel supplier. The grand jury charged the sale was completed on Oct. 5, 1951.

The jury also charged young Beck with having on Sept. 2, 1955, the $2,800 from the sale of a 1953 Cadillac to Kenneth L. Buckley, a fireman. It said the second car belonged to the Western Conference of Teamsters.

Boys and adults alike were busy making final preparations for tonight's opening celebration which will feature fireworks, exhibits and demonstrations of scouting skills.

TODAY'S BIBLE THOUGHT

Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Matt. 24:42.—Hundreds of times pious believers have thought they had solved the enigma of Christ's second coming. Always they proved to be wrong. No mortal knows when nor where He may come. That is not our business but His. Our business is to be ready, for one thing we know each and several of us will be ushered into His presence when we have completed our tasks on Earth.

Aly Khan New Moslem Leader

VERSIOX, Switzerland UP—Prince Karim Aly Khan, a serious young student of Oriental history at Harvard University, assumed his duties today as the first atonage leader of more than 10 million Ismaili Moslems.

The handsome, 20-year-old prince, who now will be known as Aga Khan IV, was the surprise choice of his grandfather, the late Aga Khan, to serve as his successor as head of the sect.

The Aga Khan, who died Thursday at the age of 79, provided in his will that Karim be named Imam leader of the Shiah Muslim Ismaili community. The announcement Friday night came as a surprise. Aly Khan, Karim's father and former husband of actress Rita Hayworth, at first was believed to be the most logical choice.

The Aga Khan, who is permitted by Moslem law to name his successor, also passed over his younger son, 24-year-old Prince Sadruddin, in favor of Karim.

Leaders of the Muslim Ismaili community gathered in this village on the shore of Lake Geneva today to pay homage to the new

Aga Khan, which literally means "honorable leader."

The death bed will written by the ailing Aga Khan two months ago revealed he preferred Karim

as his successor because the sect

"needs a modern-minded young leader to cope with the problems of an atomic age."

Early Squeeze Helps Declarer
By Alfred Sheinwold
There are many advantages to running a long suit at no-trump. Unlike as it may seem, an opponent may find difficulty in discarding safely.

West opened the five of spades, and South won with the queen. Declarer saw that he could win two spades, two diamonds, and four clubs. One other trick was needed.
South thought of making a heart play of some kind, but saw no harm in running the four club tricks first. This turned out to be a very good idea.

WEST TROUBLED
When the third club was led, West was in trouble. He didn't dare discard a diamond, for then declarer could duck one diamond and later take three diamond tricks in dummy. West likewise couldn't discard the queen of hearts, for South would lead a heart to set up three tricks in that suit.
For lack of anything better, West had to discard a spade. Declarer promptly took his fourth club trick, and West had to discard another spade for the same reasons.
These discards gave South no tricks, but they removed the threat of the long spade suit. South could afford to set up his hearts, giving two tricks in the process. West could get only one spade trick, and South made his contract with an overtake.

CAN YOU LAUGH AT DUCKLINGS?

Betty can laugh at ducklings. She remembers that classic of the Ugly One who grew up to be a stately swan. Betty laughs because she understands the story. She knows that some people, like ducklings, often scorn someone who is different.
But she knows, too, from her religious training, that there are times when a person must face the scorn of others and be different. In fact, already she has found that a primary aim of Christianity is to change life for the better ... to help the individual be different so the world can be different.
Not everyone can laugh at ducklings. Some folks take quite seriously the dread of being different. For instance, there are men and women who don't attend Church, but who would like to. They simply feel awkward about breaking away from an indifference which they think is expected of them.
You can make it easy for the hungry-but-hesitant to attend Church. Always invite someone to worship with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
